LUCIE MAJERUS

COMPANY INFORMATION

ONLINE PRESENCE

As a multidisciplinary designer with a conceptual approach, I like to question and make people question the ordinary, trigger their imagination and playfulness and make them smile for a moment. Contextualisation and research are a crucial in my work process. I like to look into the past to understand how things are today to be able to imagine the future. My interests lie in conceptual thinking, our senses, experiences and memories, social cohesion and material experiments.
